

Interesting Wales Surnames That Double

As Beautiful First Names

Awbrey

It is derived from the Baptismal name, meaning "son of Aubrey."

Caddell

Associated with Saint Cadell ab Urien of the 7th century, Caddell is derived from the word "cad," which means battle.

Dew

A fairly new name for the Welsh, Dew means "a treasured one."

Elijah

A common name in the past for saints, Elijah in Hebrew translates to "my God is lord."

Phillips

Taken from the Greek word Philippos, wherein "philein" means "love" and "hippos" mean "horse."

Thomas

A biblical name derived from the Aramaic nickname meaning "twin."

